Manor Admission Process

1. Complete Bethany Manor Application. Have your Physician complete a medical exam fill out the Bethany Medical Exam Form. Return the Bethany Manor Application and Medial to Bethany Manor, attention Beth Sparrow Manor Coordinator. Bethany's medical team will review your application. After the application is approved you will be placed on the waiting list.
2. When an occupancy is available and is offered to you:
You will be contacted and given up to one (1) week to accept the room offer. An appointment maybe schedule to see the room during this week.
If you accept the offer, you will need to make a $500 deposit and sign a Resident Agreement Form. If Bethany Manor does not receive the deposit and signed agreement within a week of the offer it will go to the next person on the waiting list.
3. Upon signing the Resident Agreement you will receive the Resident Information Package that includes additional paperwork to be completed when you move in. You are required to inform Bethany Manor of your move in date as soon as possible.
4. Move in...Welcome to Bethany Manor!

Additional Notes

- a) The deposit will hold the studio/suite for you for two (2) months. The billing for the full amount of the rent will commence on the date the resident moves in, or two months after the date of the offer is accepted, whichever is first. If the resident has not moved in within four months, Bethany reserves the right to cancel the agreement, keep the deposit and make the room available for another applicant.
- b) If you refuse a room offered you can choose to remain on the waiting list.
- c) If your move-in date occurs more than six (6) months after your medical application has been submitted or there has been a change in your health status you will be asked to have a new medical exam and forms completed by your physician.
